Boys' Basketball Camp

About the Program

Whether a child is looking for a fun summer activity or an opportunity to take their game to the next level, Siddeeq Institute Summer Basketball Camp leaves every child with a memorable experience. This camp includes high-energy training, professional coaching, structured drills and games for an optimal fun experience. With an amazing indoor facility, this is a great opportunity for our kids to get off the couch and give the screens a break, and instead let their blood flow and youthful energy peak in a safe and positive environment. With daily Islamic reminders and life-lessons, this camp is not only about fun and fitness, but also an opportunity to build good character and good qualities.

Schedule

5 Sundays from June 15th to July 13th

11:30 AM - 1:00 PM

Head Coach/Trainer: Mufti Rohullah Bayanzai

At the heart of our camp is Mufti Rohullah, a true veteran of the game with over 25 years of basketball experience—both on the court and from the sidelines. From local gyms to nationally recognized tournaments, Mufti Rohullah has competed across the U.S., going head-to-head with top-tier talent, NBA players, and seasoned professionals, all while learning from some of the best minds in basketball. His game has consistently earned the respect of those he competes against, and he's known for generously sharing his knowledge—offering tips and training to athletes at every level, from high school standouts and college players to aspiring youth.

But what truly sets Mufti Rohullah apart isn't just his deep knowledge and skills of basketball — it's his ability to connect with kids. He brings a rare blend of high-level experience and down-to-earth mentorship, making every participant feel seen, valued, and motivated to grow.

Why Parents Love Mufti Rohullah:

- Proven Experience: Decades of real-game insight, taught in a way kids understand and enjoy.
- Strong Role Model: Emphasizes discipline, teamwork, and good sportsmanship both on and off the court — while also providing Islamic guidance and encouraging players to develop strong character, good conduct, and a love for being upright, practicing Muslims.
- Relatable & Encouraging: Knows how to push kids to be their best while keeping the experience fun, positive, and respectful.

Mufti Rohullah doesn't just build better basketball players — he's dedicated to helping raise confident, respectful, and disciplined young Muslims who strive to be positive contributors to society

Joining Mufti Rohullah is a dedicated team of passionate and skilled players, each bringing their own unique journey through basketball — from school courts to competitive leagues. With heart, humility, and hands-on experience, they're here to help the next generation grow both as athletes and as individuals, guiding each participant to become the best version of themselves — on and off the court.

Rules

1. All players must have the liability waiver signed by their parents/guardian before participating. No player will be allowed to participate until the form is signed.
2. Children should arrive accompanied by their parent/guardian until they enter the gym.
3. Players should wear appropriate attire and shoes for physical exercise. If kids are wearing shorts, please ensure that they are long enough to COVER THE KNEES.
4. No bad language, bullying, talking back, or bad attitudes will be allowed. Players will receive a warning first and face discipline (running or push-ups) for the second time. If any player continues to be an obstacle for the good environment that this program promotes, they may be asked to drop out from the program.
5. Every player should bring their own water.
6. Parents should be prompt on picking up their kids by 1:30 PM. We do not want any unattended minors on the premises after the program hours are over.
7. All players will be playing from 11:30 AM - 1:00 PM. We will split the players up according to their age divisions and skill levels with the 6 courts that we have booked at the Washington High School indoor gym.
8. Spots are limited and your registration is considered complete once you filled the online registration form and submitted payment. If a child misses any of the five sessions, there will be no refunds.
9. No food or drinks are allowed inside the gym. Any water must be drunk outside.
